LATIPAC

In Memoriam

BOB LASSITER

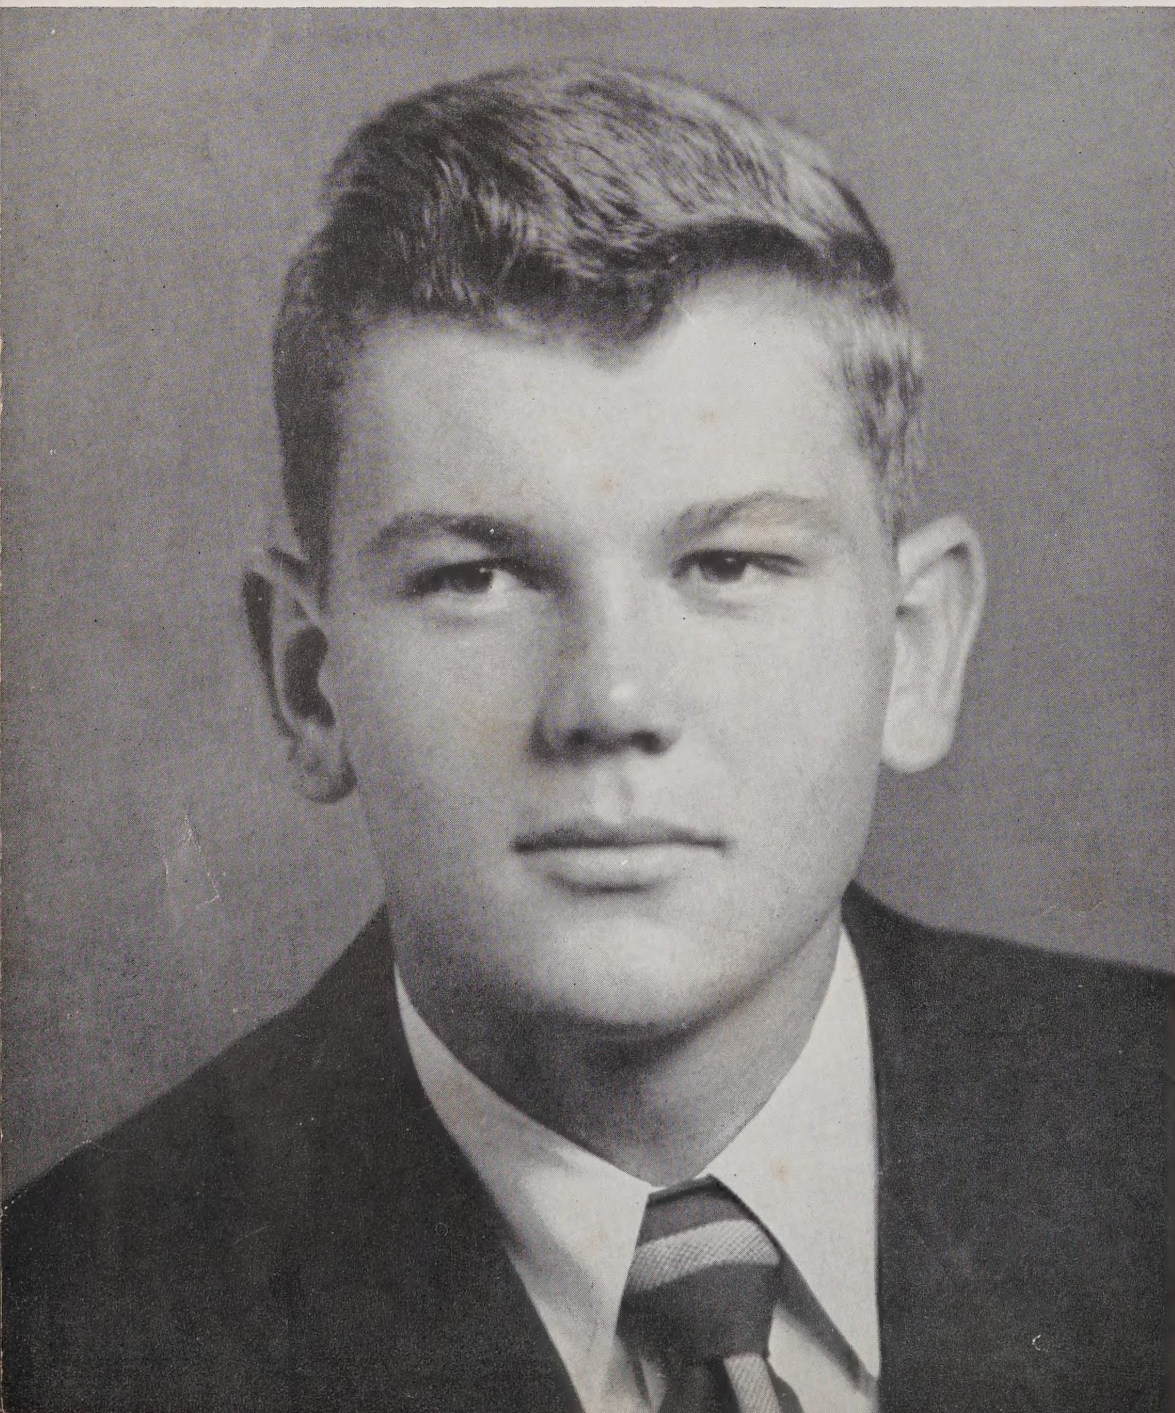

1934-1952

We go now;
You go, too,
For in each memory-life
You remain
Ever grinning and freckled
And ever young.

MRS. NANCY HOOVER ROOT

Science teacher in the Raleigh City Schools for 32 years. Died March 14, 1953.

Dedication

Those who place before our minds new worlds to conquer,
 Who with patience tried to the very end still wait to help the stumbling,
 Who light the way to knowledge with a beckoning gleam,
 Who guide—

mankind calls these, "teacher."

Those who disregard the wall between adult-child and maturity and meet us in friendship,
 Who seek out in each the individual, bringing each into his own,
 Who understand—

mankind calls these, "friend."

In leaving, we must say good-bye to you who are both of these for us.
 You are not left behind;
 You walk with us into the future,
 In the best of us,
 The best you found and shaped.
 This best we will give to the future—
 Through you.

Love to you,
Nancy. Sandling

The Senior Class of 1953

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, we salute thee,
Bounteous giver hear our praise
For within thy walls we've garnered
Gifts enriching all our days;
Opportunity for friendship,
Guidance in our quest for truth
Faith through all our grave endeavor,
Understanding love of youth.
These our gifts, O Alma Mater,
We shall cherish through the days
Striving still through high endeavor
Thus to render thee our praise.

Senior Class Officers

Senior Mascot

CLARENCE MITCHELL GODWIN
"Mickey" Godwin

We, the members of the 1953 Senior Class, stand at the threshold of a new and different world. We are leaving on one side of this threshold our five years of work and activities at Broughton. On the other side stands our futures.

We regret crossing this threshold and leaving this part of our lives behind; but we will strive to do our best wherever we go or in whatever we do, so Broughton will always be proud of us.

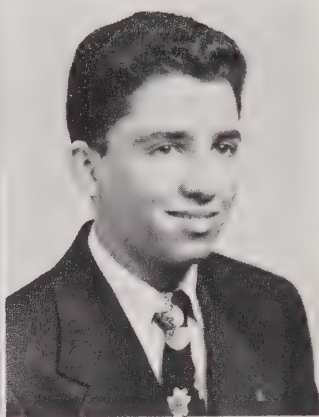

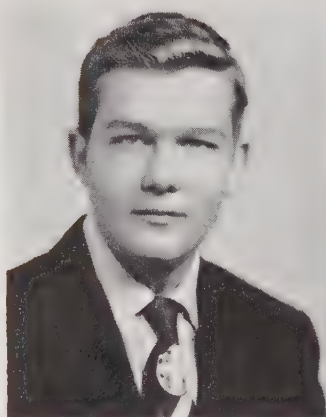

To our principal, our deans, and our teachers—on your guidance and untiring efforts we base our trust in the future.

To our friends and our Alma Mater—you are what have helped to make our days so full of the things we will long remember. To all of you we wish a fond farewell.

BETTY JANE STEPHENSON,
Senior Class Secretary.

Our Junior Class began the year with the election of its class officers. Gary Fisher was elected president; Manly Eubank, vice-president; Joanne Sink, secretary; Jimmy Johnson, treasurer; and Jimmy Chambers, sergeant-at-arms.

One of our two service projects was a nativity scene on the front lawn before the Christmas holidays. An informal dance was also sponsored one afternoon in co-operation with the Junior Hi-Y and the Audio-Visual Club for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

Selling drinks at school functions and magazine subscriptions paved the way for the biggest event of the year, the Junior-Senior. This long awaited prom was held April 17.

Representing the Junior Class as marshals were Alice Smith, Betty Barker, Danny Jones, and Gerry Hartzog.

Our efforts and achievements have been encouraged by our class advisor, Harry Howard. His interest and guidance were largely responsible for the success achieved throughout our Junior year.

Student Council

In the spring of 1952 the Student Council began preparing for this year 1952-1953. The election of officers was held with Ned Meekins and Mary Lynn Moody winning Vice-President and Secretary respectively on nominations. In the run-offs the following officers were elected: Bill Beaty, president; and Richard Pindell, sergeant-at-arms. A faculty committee selected Donald Miller to be treasurer of the council and manager of the school store. At a special assembly program, the officers and the newly appointed committee chairmen were installed. Each member of the executive council of the previous year summarized his duty and named his new successor.

The Student Council began its work in the last week of August when they held a meeting. At the meeting the council made out plans for the coming year. They also decided in a way to welcome the teachers and greet the new as well as the old students.

By the end of September, the Student Council had held a tea for the newcomers and eighth graders.

One of the projects this year as in years before was the Clean-up Campaign held in December by the House and Grounds Committee. Also during the month of December, the council held a Christmas dance that was enjoyed by everyone.

In February the Council sponsored the annual Student-Faculty game which is one of the highlights of the year. The Student Council also assisted in making plans for a new youth center. Another project was to buy all necessary materials needed for the English teachers to teach Parliamentary Procedure in their classes. This year a suggestion box was put in the cafeteria for suggestions as to how to improve the school.

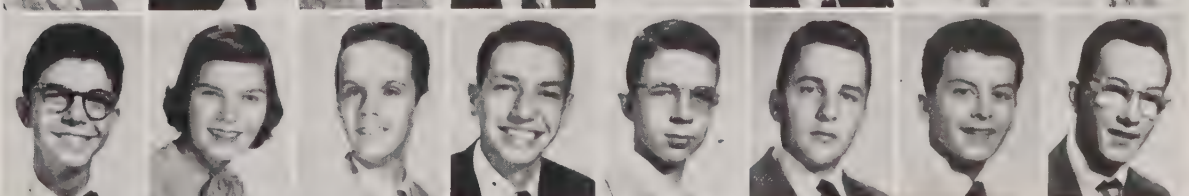

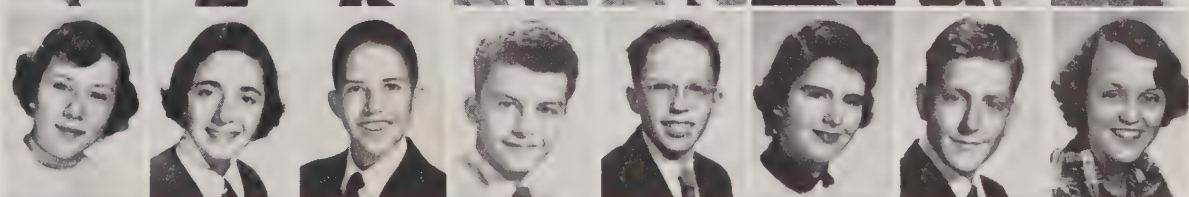

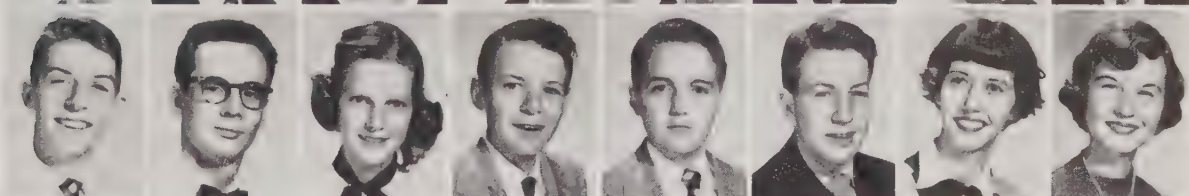

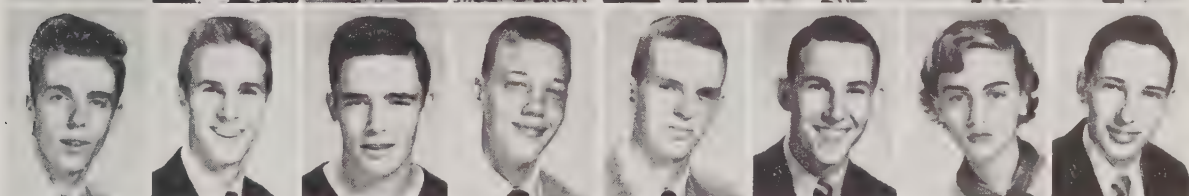

During the year a number of projects have been sponsored by the Student Council, many of which are daily things and therefore taken for granted. The student telephone, the homecoming game, the school store, the sponsoring of elections, the chartering of buses for athletic events, and the chapel programs are only a few of the projects which are paid for or supervised by the council. Without the Student Council, Broughton could not maintain its high standard of today. It brings us many of the conveniences and pleasures which we, the students, enjoy and need.

The Service Club was organized by the Student Council to give recognition to students who had done outstanding work and had not been recognized for it. These students did voluntary work for the Student Council, office, publications, and class. Every student and teacher has the privilege of nominating someone for the Service Club. A meeting is held to discuss each candidate and then vote on them. A unanimous vote must be received in order to be admitted to the club.

The Service Club holds two ceremonies before the student body, one in the fall for seniors only, and one in the spring for juniors with not more than two seniors being inducted. The membership never exceeds 25. The names of the new members are not revealed until the program when the name cards are unfolded by present members. As the spotlight beams on the name, the student goes to the stage and a summary of his service to the school is read.

Latipac Staff

Work on the 1953 LATIPAC began with the election of Toni Briggs as editor, Barbara Churchill as business manager and the appointments of Neill McLeod and Leonard Kamsler as advertising and photography managers, respectively. Following these selections, a large supporting staff was chosen. Rep Merritt became our senior editor-in-chief. A person from each homeroom was asked to help him. Betty Barker and Bill Bickett were junior editors; Joyce Howell and Joan Barber sophomore editors; Nell Bowling and Elizabeth Womble freshman editors with Ann Eury and Jean Foushee as sub-freshman editors. Jane Vick and Karen Jensen spent many long hours tracing the seniors' wonderful years at Broughton for the "Senior Story." Assisted by many, Shirley Slocum and Rick Pindell managed the sports section. Ann Woodward expressed our thoughts perfectly when she wrote the In Memoriam and Dedication pages. Mary Carter and Jim Bynum handled the joke section while Becky Knight and Eleanor Palmer tended to the faculty pages. Miranda Watson and Elizabeth Arthur worked diligently on the senior captions. Patricia Spainhour was in charge of the autographs while Jesse Chappell and Sue Sorrell managed the feature section. The staff wishes to thank the journalism and typing classes for their grand help and support. Also, our deepest gratitude to Miss Laura Helen Paschal, our advisor. Without her guidance and patience, this annual would never have gone to press.

Waller and Smith took the seniors' pictures, and Delmar Studios of Charlotte took those of the other classes. Leonard Kamsler sacrificed much of his time to make the other pictures for our annual.

At their December meeting, the seniors decided to dedicate the LATIPAC to Mr. John Joel Mitchell and Mrs. Phyllis Peacock.

Under the leadership of Neill McLeod, the journalism classes reached a set quota of ads. This meant a sacrifice of Saturdays, afternoons, and school time. Each senior that took journalism was required to obtain at least three ads.

After a vote of the journalism classes, it was decided that the LATIPAC would be wine trimmed in white.

Soon our annual went to press. Not long afterwards, the proof sheets returned. More long hours were spent proofreading. Finally, after all corrections were made, the sheets were returned to Edwards and Broughton. Today, you are seeing the final product of nine months work. We truly hope that you the reader are satisfied with these glimpses of your 1952-53 year at Needham Broughton.

Hi-Times Staff

The eight issues of the Hi-Times for 1952-53 were published by the combined efforts of the five journalism classes, Laura Helen Paschal, advisor, the editor, Janice Bishop, and the rest of the staff. The first two issues appeared in October, the next two in November and December, the following two in February, and the last two on April Fools' Day and the last of May.

Sparking every issue of the paper were the pictures by staff photographer, Leonard Kamsler. Among Leonard's most striking and novel photographs were the Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas front page feature pictures and the football and basketball action shots.

Ann Woodward, Barbara Churchill, Miranda Watson worked on pages two and three, the feature pages. "Woodie's Words" an advice column pointed out many of our social problems. Barbara and "Happy" helped plan the pages and took charge of "Student Standouts" and the fashion column. In the Christmas issue two extra pages were devoted to the compositions of creative writing students.

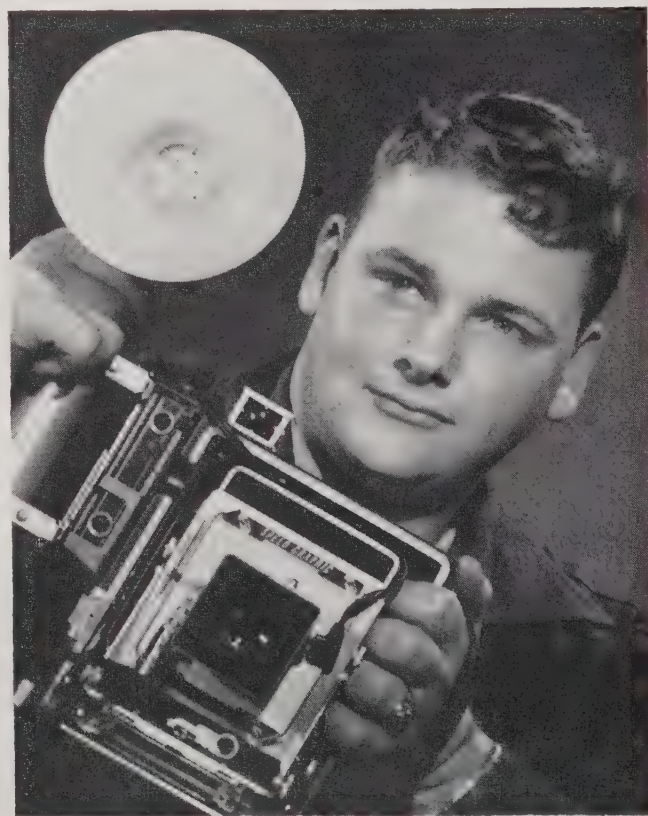

Besides those editorials of the editors and other writers, an editorial by Fred Powledge appeared in almost every issue. Fred's "Christmas in Korea" was published on the front page of the Christmas issue.

Among the boys working on the sports pages have been Wayne Bullard, George Fairbanks, Bobby Hines, Bobby Sessoms, Jimmy Bethune, and Jimmy Porter.

Neill McLeod and Jean Bryan have done outstanding work as advertising managers. Solicitors for ads were Danny Jones, Elizabeth Womble, Sue Willett, Margaret Campen, and Elizabeth Arthur.

Circulation managers Anne Penney, Alma Graham, and Carolyn Rawls helped distribute the Hi-Times.

The junior issue of the paper was published on April 1 under the management of Alma Graham, who also wrote an editorial.

The last issue of the Hi-Times was put out solely by seniors the last of May. One of the four extra pages was devoted to photographs.

Winged Words

In 1950-51 Winged Words was published for the first time; many of the first issues were sent to schools in other states. From these schools, Winged Words received much praise, and in the spring was on display in the library of Columbia University.

In 1951-52 two issues were published, and from these Broughton's magazine received national acclaim in the magazine, Know How.

And in 1952-53 the literary magazine, Winged Words, was edited for the third year. The few students who had worked to make Needham Broughton proud of this publication were rewarded.

Early this fall under the direction of the editor, Ann Woodward, the staff began to read and reread original manuscripts submitted by students or by English teachers. Shirley Parker, the writing editor, began to sift out the better stories and poems sent to her while corresponding secretary, Megan Goodwin, was busy answering letters from other schools. Art editors, Edith Rogers and Nicky Stamey, were preparing to illustrate the final selections, and publicity editor, Miranda Watson, waited to put up posters announcing that the first issue had been completed.

After the manuscripts were selected, assistant editor, Neill McLeod, began to proofread the selections and to help the typing editor, who was Dorothy Newman. When typists, Louise Clark, Sue Sorrell, and Karen Jensen had completed the dummy copy, Rita Satsky typed the twelve stencils after each story and poem had been arranged by Rep Meritt and Neal Paris, lay-out editors. Business manager, John Lineberger, kept all bills and totaled the cost of this first issue of Winged Words.

The first issue was sent to press, and distributed the first of March. Plans were made to publish a second edition before the end of May, and the entire staff immediately began working again.

Key Club

The Needham Broughton Key Club began its 1952-53 year by installing the following officers.

BILL BEATY.....President
 JERRY HARTZOG.....Vice-President
 NED MEEKINS.....Secretary
 LEONARD KAMSLER.....Treasurer
 JACK FRAZELLE.....Sergeant-at-Arms
 DON STEINE.....Reporter

The Club's motto is "We Build." Members are elected into the organization on the basis of service to the school and leadership qualifications.

The Raleigh chapter of this International Organization set as its goal, three main projects.

In co-operation with the Kiwanis Club, the Broughton boys rendered their services to the Kiwanis Minstrel. All proceeds from the minstrel went to a home for the aged. Stage Crewmen and ushers were a few of the jobs assigned to the Broughton group.

The Key Club served the school by handling concessions at Raleigh High home basketball games for the Athletic Association.

In March the organization was host to over three hundred boys for the Seventh Annual District Carolina's Convention. Cultural and Social benefits were provided for all those attending. This affair added much prestige to the Needham Broughton Key Club in its third year of activity.

Sophomores were inducted into the club in January. They were Semi Mintz, Bob Alphin, Russell Bray, Page Bernstein, and Allan Norris.

Little Theater

The Broughton Little Theater, composed today of 187 students, was first organized in 1930. It is open to all high school students interested in any of the many phases of dramatics.

Under the guidance of its new advisor, Miss Nan Wilkinson, it presented a three act play, "You Can't Take It With You," helped with the Senior Play, and presented three one act plays. To finish the year right and as if they have not been busy enough, The Little Theater gave an Easter play, "The Terrible Meek" for the P.T.A. and Chapel, and sent one play to the contest in Chapel Hill.

ALMA GRAHAM.....Vice-President
PEGGY CARLTON.....Secretary
NANCY NORDSTROM.....Treasurer

The Golden Masquers, Broughton's honorary dramatic society, recognizes students who have excelled in the various fields of drama. Eligibility is based on acting, and all technical phases of play productions. After the student qualifies, he must be voted into the club.

In the fall, four seniors, Otis Carroll, Bill Crisp, Johnny Lineburger, and Dusty Rhodes; and two juniors, Sara Gullette and Billy Williford were elected. Their initiation took place at the December dinner meeting.

The projects for the first semester included designing posters, and puzzles to acquaint the student body with this organization, and selecting poems which were read over the public address system during the Christmas season.

The Stage Crew worked throughout the year in order to keep the stage in good condition. The Club worked harder than usual in order to build sets for five plays. It was also the duty of the stage crew to clean and arrange the stage for assembly programs, P.T.A. meetings and class meetings. Co-chairmen of the Stage Crew are Danny Thomas and Ann Woodward. Mr. Holiday was Stage Crew advisor.

Audio-Visual

The purpose of the Audio-Visual Club is to advance visual education in the school and to teach theory and practical knowledge of Audio-Visual equipment.

When the club was organized for the 1952-'53 year with the aid of Mr. Mitchell, advisor, and Harvey Henson, chairman, it had begun another year of service to the school. Its thirty members went to work showing movies; operating the tape recorder; playing records for dances; and operating the sound system for assembly. One of the club's projects has been to give some eighth grade students knowledge of and experience in operating our equipment in preparation for club membership in the following years.

The Mixed Chorus distinguished itself in its performance of Handel's "Messiah" at Christmas time. Last year the Mixed Chorus and Girls Chorus were rated "Superior" in the State Contest. In the Annual Spring Concert, the Choruses appeared with the Band for a program that was well received. The Chorus is composed of approximately 200 members.

Broughton Vocal Ensemble

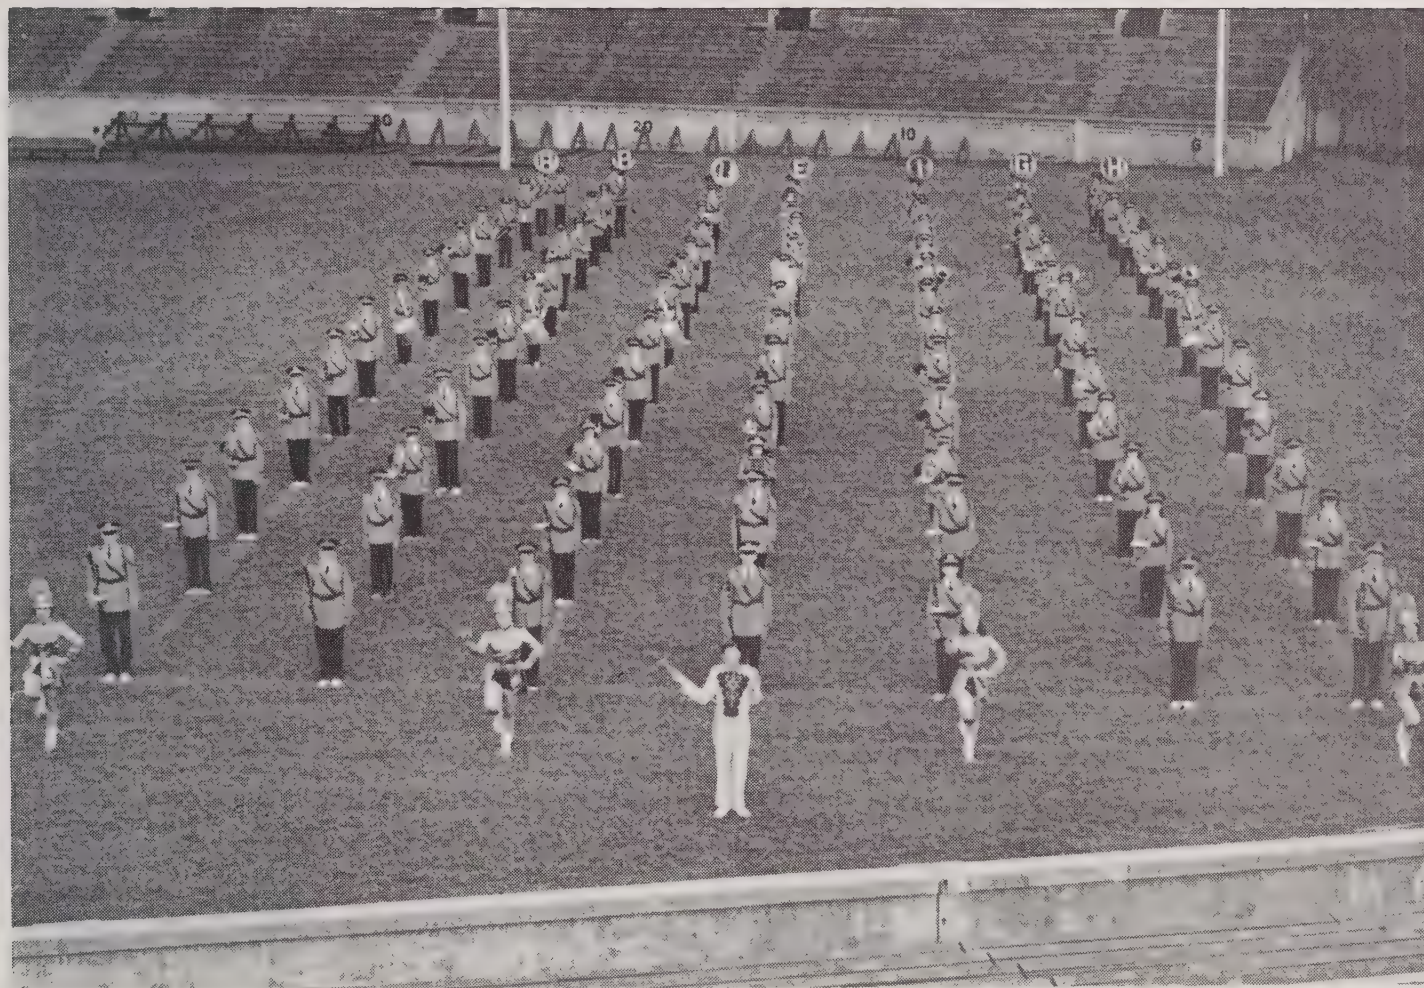

The Broughton Vocal Ensemble is composed of 18 selected students. This is the top performing vocal group in the school. It appears in formal clothes for all performances. The group sings both in school and for civic clubs.

Before Christmas the group made 17 appearances including radio programs. For the first time in the planning of the State Contest-Festival, groups of this kind are now being permitted to sing in the contest.

The Marching Hundred

ROBERT A. BARNES, Director

With a roll of drums and a blare of brass the Raleigh High School Marching Hundred steps on the football field and into one of its fancy formations. This year's head drum major,

French Club

This year the French Club met after school as one large group composed of the combined first and second year classes of both Mrs. Ladu and Mrs. Delgado. The club officers were Jimmy Mizelle, president; Nancy Eubanks, vice-president; Janice Bishop, secretary; Carolyn Green, treasurer; Manly Eubanks, sergeant-at-arms; and Glenn Warren, social chairman.

The Program and Social Committees were responsible for the presentation of several interesting programs during the year. French customs and holidays were discussed in one meeting; and Mr. Wilson, an exchange teacher from Canada, gave an informative talk on Quebec in another meeting.

As their social for the year, the French Club held a banquet in April. Festive touches, such as the French Menus and decorations, helped make the occasion a memorable one. The entertainment included folkdancing and singing by the French students. The banquet concluded a successful year for the French Club.

Spanish Club

At the beginning of the school year, a new method of organization was instituted in which all of the Spanish classes combined to form one General Spanish Club. The purpose of this General Club is to afford all interested Spanish students an opportunity to share their knowledge of our Spanish speaking neighbors.

Meeting twice a semester, the club enjoyed Latin-American speakers, singing Christmas carols in the halls, and a final spring banquet.

Officers for the year were: President Jane Vick, Vice-President Joan Barber, Secretary Alice Smith, Treasurer Hal Miller, and Sergeant-at-Arms Mike Morse.

Senior Y-Teens

"To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

"In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

These grow out of the Y.W.C.A. and the purposes are used as a simple but direct statement of objectives and goals.

1. To grow as a person.
2. To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities.
3. To grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Membership to the Senior Y-Teens is open to every school girl in the eleventh and twelfth grades who believe in the purpose of the Y.W.C.A. and will help to promote it in her own living. It is up to each member to make her group a friendly and active one, to participate in its programs and take part in national and international projects in her association.

The Y.W.C.A. membership fee is 50 cents per year (25 cents is paid to the local association and 25 cents is sent to the National Board as an expression of individual responsibility for the national association.) Club dues are paid accordingly to the individual Y-Teen club policy.

The club's officers for 1952-53 were Barbara Churchill, president; Susan Sharpe, vice-president; Janice Bishop, secretary; Mary Carter, treasurer; and Louise Clark, program chairman.

The Raleigh High Caps won seven of their nine games this year to give Coach Carroll King his best season since he came to Raleigh. Watson Holyfield, Jimmy Ringgold, and Chris Shay are the assistants who did excellent jobs in their respective departments. The Caps took the runner-up spot in the Eastern Conference with a four and two record. The locals also defeated some tough Western Conference opponents. The fifteen seniors on the team included some of the best Raleigh has seen in some years.

RALEIGH-DURHAM

The Raleigh High Caps, although out playing Durham in yards rushing and first downs, took their first loss of the season 19-6. The opening kick off hit a Raleigh lineman and bounded toward Murdock on the fifteen yard line. Jackie never got a firm grip on the ball and it rolled into the end zone where a Bulldog end fell on it. Officials ruled that Murdock had had control of the ball, and gave Durham a touch down. All state candidates Bass and Riggsbee played well for Durham. Voorhees drew applause from both sides when he carried around end and bumped a Durham player so hard that he fell onto two other Bulldogs.

RALEIGH—WILSON

Raleigh High, after taking a licking from Durham, handed a strong Wilson eleven a 12-0 setback. It was the Cyclones first conference loss, and the Caps first conference win! In the first quarter, Macon took a hand off from Murdock, found a hole, and went all the way for a T.D. As time was running out, Newton snared a pass at midfield and out ran three Wilson backs for the final tally. The play covered fifty-two yards. Exceptional defensive play held the Cyclones to only two first downs during the entire game. Voorhees carried for 122 of the Caps 159 yards rushing! Early in the first quarter Julian Peebles received a compound fracture of his right leg.

RALEIGH — GOLDSBORO

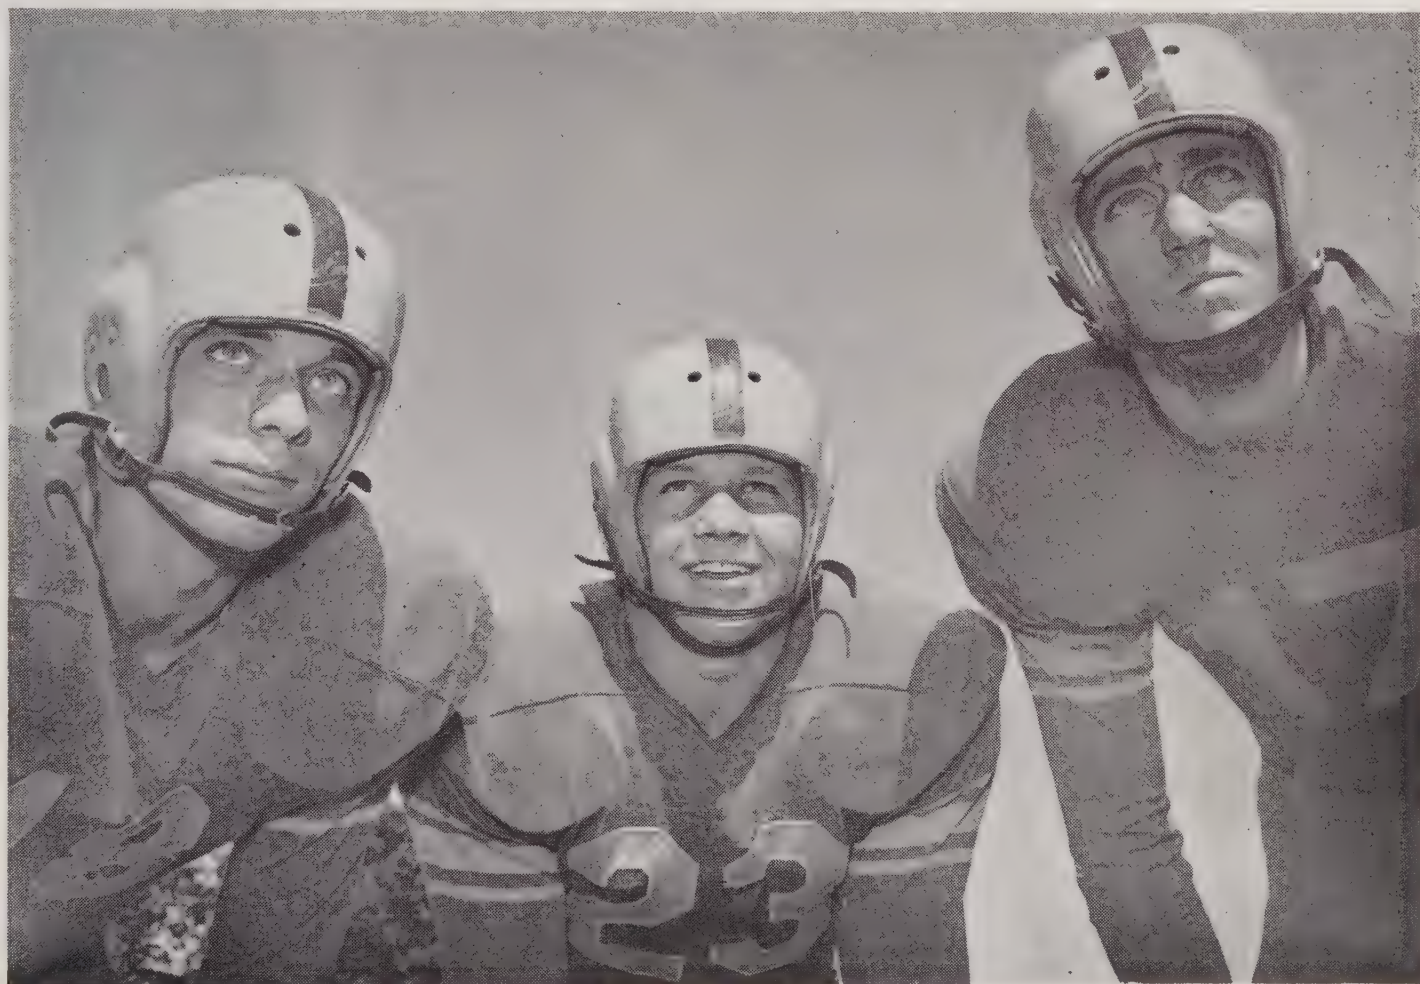

The Caps scored in every quarter to down the Earthquakes 27-0. Murdock passed to Newton and Johnson for six pointers, then scampered for a third himself. Johnson carried for the last tally. Time ran out in the first half, and Murdock intercepted a pass in the third quarter to kill the Goldsboro scoring threats. Fine defensive play held the 'Quakes to thirty-five yards rushing, and fifty-five yards passing. Newton, Jenkins, and Puryear led play in the forward wall with Voorhees doing his usual good job at line backer. Although the Caps fumbled three times, they out played Goldsboro in every department.

RALEIGH — BURLINGTON

Raleigh High came out on the long end of a 33-27 score against Williams High of Burlington in a game for the fans. The Western Conference eleven scored three times as a result of fumbles. The locals first score came when Murdock climaxed a sixty yard drive by going over from the two yard stripe. The last play of the first stanza saw Raleigh take the lead at 13-7 when Voorhees bulled his way over from the twelve.

The Bulldogs came back in the third period to take the lead at 14-13. After the Burlington kick off, Raleigh marched straight down the field. Moody's T.D. was nullified by a penalty, but the Caps were not to be stopped. In three plays they had scored again. Williams High matched the Cap's T.D. with one of their own, and the Bulldogs led again 20-19. Raleigh promptly took charge as Murdock passed to Johnson. Jenkins placement was good and the Caps were ahead 26-20. The Western Conference eleven got their last tally midway in the last quarter. With a minute and a half left in the game, Murdock took to the air, but not for long. The clever quarterback, after two passes, ran through the middle for the last Raleigh six pointer. Jenkins again converted and the scoring parade was over with the Caps out front 33-27. Even though it was strictly offense on the gridiron, it was a thriller from the stands.

RALEIGH — FAYETTEVILLE

The underdog Raleigh Caps took the measure of a strong Fayetteville eleven 20-14 in Fayetteville. Jenkins recovered a Bulldog fumble in the first quarter. Moody, Voorhees, and Johnson moved the ball to the one yard line. Murdock went over for the T.D. and the score stood at 7-7 at half time. Early in the third period All-State end Tommy Newton blocked a Bulldog kick on the thirty-nine. This time it was Johnson and Voorhees carrying to the one yard line, and Hartzog scoring. It was probably the best team victory of King's career in Raleigh. The Cap backs as well as linemen played brilliant football throughout the game.

RALEIGH — ROCKY MOUNT

It was family night at Riddick Stadium, and the Caps gave 7,000 fans a 19-14 victory to close the season. Raleigh far out-played the Blackbirds as Voorhees netted 198 yards rushing. Rocky Mount scored first as Lee took a Raleigh fumble and raced 63 yards for the T.D. With time fleeting in the first half,

Johnson passed to Moody in the end zone. The placement was good and the half-time score was 7-7. Voorhees carried three Rocky Mount defenders across the goal after only four plays in the third quarter. The Blackbirds cashed in on another fumble and led 14-13. As the last quarter got underway, Cline recovered a fumble on his own 41 yard line. With four minutes remaining, Murdock crashed the middle for the game winning points. Coach King's charges were moving again as the game ended with Raleigh on the Blackbird 20 yard stripe.

DURHAM (There)

On February 20, King's cagers traveled to Durham and scored an easy 78-54 victory over the "Bulldogs." Both teams scrapped hard but Raleigh had a twelve point lead at half time. The Caps continued their blistering pace the second half. Jackie Murdock lead the scoring of both teams with 24 points. The Caps now had a 9-0 loop record.

WILSON (Here)

The Raleigh "Caps" easily won their fourteenth consecutive win by a score of 86-45 over the Wilson "Cyclones." After closing the count to 8-5 in the first period, the Caps pulled away

WAKE FOREST (Here)

Raleigh High scored their twelfth straight victory by defeating Wake Forest's Jayvees 60-52. After trailing behind in the first half Raleigh's Jack Cell and Jackie Murdock came through to give the Caps a slight lead. Murdock was high scorer for the Caps with 19 points and Cell got 11 for second high.

WILMINGTON (Here)

A strong Wilmington team came to Raleigh to score an upset win for the port city five. The visitors got off to an early lead and held the upper hand all through the game. Big John Gerdes dominated the back-board play for Wilmington and was also high scorer with 22 points. By winning this game Wilmington and Raleigh tied for first place in the Eastern Conference. Both teams now have 9-1 conference records.

to a score of 23-11 at the end of the half. Forward Jack Cell had scoring honors with 20 points. At this point of the season it seems as if no one could or would stop the blistering pace of the Caps.

FAYETTEVILLE (There)

Every member of the "Caps" squad saw action as Raleigh won its thirteenth game, downing Fayetteville 82-52. The "Caps" outscored the "Bulldogs" in every quarter. Captain Jackie Murdock scored 18 points to pace the capital city crew, followed by Lenox "Bright Eyes" Johnson with 12. Don Steine and Jack Cell each received 10 points.

Forwards

GREENSBORO (There)

The "Caps" got off to a poor start in their basketball season by dropping their first game to the Greensboro "Whirlies." Raleigh was behind throughout the game except in the first period when we led by 2 points. The second half was a nip and tuck battle. With only three minutes left Greensboro's Paul Stanton and Phil Crockett began hitting to pull the game out of the fire for the "Whirlies." The "Whirlies" won 47-41. Murdock and Thomas King were Raleigh's high scorers with 16 and 8 points respectively.

CAROLINA J. V. (There)

On December 10, the Raleigh "Caps" defeated a highly favored Carolina J. V. team 74-68 in Woolen Gymnasium. Forward Jack Cell was Raleigh's spark-plug with 17 points. Tommy Teague scored 13 points for second high. The "Caps" outscored the Tar Heels in all but one quarter. The "Caps" lead was large enough to stay out front in the last quarter when they were outscored.

WAKE FOREST (There)

With Jack Murdock leading the way, Raleigh's "Caps" defeated Wake Forest's Jayvees 82-81 in an overtime thriller. The Caps trailed by a score of 46-39 at the end of the first half but overcame this deficit by 2 points in the last period. Lowell Davis scored the tying points to send the game into an overtime. At one time in the overtime period Raleigh led by 5 points but the "Baby Deacs" came back within 1 point of tying the Caps.

FAYETTEVILLE (Here)

The "Caps" thoroughly mauled Coach Jack Mueller's Fayetteville Bulldogs in Raleigh's opening conference game, 101-29, on January 16. Raleigh led 23-3 at the end of the first period with nine field goals and 5 free throws. Late in the second quarter Phil Harris scored the Bulldog's first field goal. Raleigh's big guns were Jack Murdock with 22, and Tom Teague with 19.

BURLINGTON (There)

Raleigh's defending state champs picked up their fifth straight victory on January 10 against the Burlington Bulldogs on the "Bulldogs" court, 63-59. Raleigh led throughout the game and Burlington presented a serious threat only twice during the game. The Bulldogs cut the Caps lead to 2 points once late in the third quarter and again midway the fourth quarter. Jackie Murdock and Thomas King captured scoring honors with 17 points each.

GREENSBORO (Here)

On December 20, 1952 King's Cagers wound up their pre-Christmas schedule by defeating the Greensboro Whirlies 74-55 in a preliminary game to the N. C. State-Texas Tech game. The Caps led 37-21 at intermission on the fine marksmanship of Lenox Johnson, Jack Cell, and Thomas King. King and Cell tied for top scoring honors with 16 points each. Thus the Caps had struck revenge for an early season loss at the hands of the Whirlie's.

KINSTON (There)

Raleigh's cagers journeyed to Kinston on January 9 to play the Class AA Red Devils and wound up on the long end of a 61-54 score. After the Caps jumped into a 16-6 lead at the end of the first quarter, the Devils narrowed the margin to 4 points with four minutes remaining in the contest, but the caps put on the tight freeze and increased their lead. Jack Murdock and Jack Cell led both teams in scoring with 19 and 13 points respectively.

Girls' Athletic Association

With the help of the Girl's Monogram Club, which acted as the planning board, the Girl's Athletic Association got off to a good start. The girls started playing volleyball in the fall, and held tournaments between the four teams. The members were divided into four teams under Shirley Parker, Mary Lynn Moody, Susie Sharpe, and Shirley Slocum. After volleyball came soccer, basketball and baseball. Basketball was the most enjoyed sport during the year. A team of 14 was chosen to participate in the Student-Faculty game held in February. After a knock-out-drag-out the Faculty won.

skating, bowling and many other sports. A total of 40 points may be gotten in unorganized activities and as many points as a girl may get in organized activities. The top ten girls having over 200 points are awarded their letter. Girls having over 400 points receive the second year award which is a pin and the third year the girls having over 600 points receive a letter with two stars.

This year the Girl's Athletic Association is a member of the State Girl's Athletic Association.

During the year several hikes have been taken to Lake Johnson and Lassiter's Mill. The hiking leaders were Margie Lindsey and Nancy Lou Wilson.

The girls earn points by participating in gym class tournaments, and during G.A.A. meetings unorganized points are earned by playing for one hour in basketball, softball, football, ping pong, badminton, tennis, walking,

The Jr. G.A.A. was started for the first time this year for the purpose of improving the skill of the girls in the eighth and ninth grades. The advisors were Mrs. Green and Miss Barringer and they devoted much of their time to make this project a success.

In the fall the girls played badminton, tennis, and speedball. The girls that were interested in tennis battled on the courts while those interested in badminton held tournaments inside.

The winter activity — basketball — aroused the interest and enthusiasm of the girls greatly. Thrilling games were held between the Junior Group and the Senior Group. Although the Juniors came out on the short end of most of the games, the experience gained was priceless.

During the sunny afternoons of spring the girls could be found on the softball diamonds combining fun with skill to make the game more exciting.

The girls elected June Moore and Ellen Pemberton to lead them in their sports. They were divided into two teams and the teams played each other.

Hikes this year were to Lassiter's Mill, Cary, Millbrook, and Macedonia. The girls took many of the hikes with the Sr. G.A.A. Cathy Morse, the hiking leader, led the hikes along with the hiking leaders in the Senior G.A.A.

Senior Story

Marshals

Louise Clark, Gerry Hartzog, Alice Smith, Jesse Chappel, Betty Barker, Danny Jones, Tom Newton, Ann Woodward, Joe Moody.

At the completion of our first day at Broughton in September of 1948, we found that we had not only escaped the pits, but had also survived a meeting with the principal who was to lead us through our high school career. Reluctantly we parted with many of our grammar school chums to go to new rooms and to meet new faces. Among our first true friends at Broughton were our big brothers and sisters whom we met through the social in the gym. From this moment on, each of us had our own senior idols. Soon we fell into the happy routine of "almost high school" with the thrilling dance classes in Friday gym during which we all struggled in the mastery of the box-step while listening to "There's a Tree in the Meadow" and "Love Somebody." Most of us first exhibited this new talent at the Eighth Grade Dance, which we ourselves decorated. Highlights of the year were the election of Jack Frazelle as the first president of our class, a talent show in which we all remember Jack Cell playing his banjo, and the singing of the Eighth Grade Chorus in assembly.

With our Freshman year came the never-to-be-forgotten Latin worries and the problem of getting to the right class at the right period by means of the confusing up and down steps.

Janice, Louise, Mary and Anne find football at times disheartening.

Joe takes his spills.

At last we could belong to one of the many activity period clubs, from the Knitting and Letter-Exchange Clubs to the Green Thumb Club. Junior Y-Teens and Junior Hi-Y were the first extra-curricular clubs to which we belonged and afforded us many hours enjoyment although we hated to miss that last bus going home. This too was the last year for a Y-Teen May-Court, in which five of our girls took part. With much enthusiasm we decided at a class meeting, with Tommy Newton presiding, that our freshman dance should be a barn dance. This was the first dance of this kind at Broughton and we soon were being called the "original class." We felt we had a larger part in the Student Council when we realized that our class was to furnish the next year's secretary, Karen Jensen. Never will we forget the last minute searches through woods and vacant lots for wild flowers for our Biology notebooks.

The Korean War was three months old when we entered our Sophomore year, soon to realize that "all Gaul is divided into three parts . . ." and that Algebra was taught in 209. Under the leadership of Joe Moody, as president, the unity and working worth of the class was proven by the success of the Sophomore Circus. Dramatic students were impressed with the trip to Chapel Hill for the State Dramatic Festival. Winged Words, which was to become an important part in the Broughton life of many of our classmates, was organized. An important improvement for our school, the public address system, was added that year. We now wonder how we ever managed without it. State players Ranzino and Dickey had many enthusiastic fans throughout classes, both among the girls and the boys. With spring came a new crop of peroxided heads and a resulting pronouncement by our "tweed-suited" friend that there were to be no more of these.

During our Junior year, we were introduced to "specific writing" and, through lectures, to poets, Robert Frost and Carl Sandburg. Under Vice-president Rick Pindell, who took over when President Edgar Fisher moved, we published a student telephone directory and conducted a successful magazine campaign. Now we were eligible for membership into the National Honor Society and the Service Club. With great pride several bus loads of Broughton students attended the Basketball Tournament in Durham to cheer our team on to the State AAA Championship. Many carloads of students with brand-new driver's licenses supported the team during their conference play.

By spring there was much ado about the proposed Junior-Senior—what would be the theme and who would be allowed to attend. An elaborate underwater scene was finally decided upon and the success of our Junior-Senior was largely due to Mr. Mitchell whom we elected previously as our class advisor. Before school was out Bill Beaty and Joe Moody had been chosen to represent Broughton at Boys' State, Edith Rogers as the representative to Girls' State, and Jesse Chappel as the representative for the New York trip on the United Nations Pilgrimage.

The beginning of the end was the first day of our Senior year when we rushed to school to see in which homeroom we would spend our last year. We missed the class of '52 when we realized that we had no one left to look up to. Our leaders for the year were Bill Beaty as President of the Student Council and Johnny Lineberger as President of our class. During the fall we cheered our team on to more victories than we had known before at Broughton. Government students gave us a taste of politics when they presented campaign speeches with all the trimmings in assembly, and then carried on a presidential election in the school at the same time that the national election was being held. The nation happened to agree with Broughton, which went for "Ike." At an election in October, Toni Briggs was elected editor-in-chief of this our LATIPAC, and most of us journalism students began working madly to contribute our three ads. Janice Bishop was serving as editor of the Hi-Times which won second place in a national rating for schools of this size.

Newton and Teague push the hoover cart for "Ike."

Rita and Sally prepare our election boxes.

Bill, Faye, Carolyn, and Woody observe Christmas in a traditional manner.

At the Christmas program, we remember the solo parts of Ann Penney, Angela Griffith, and Faye Brown. Just before our Christmas vacation, the Student Council tried a new type dance labeled the "Snow Ball." Many remarks were made that the setting, a snow-covered forest with blue lights playing on it, was the most beautiful ever.

By Friday, February 13, we had planned and carried out "Our" Queen of Hearts program. The many extra hours spent after school in the decorations for this presentation paid off by giving Broughton the most fabulous Queen of Hearts surroundings ever attempted before.

Janice gives her list to Santa while Jean finishes her last minute shopping.

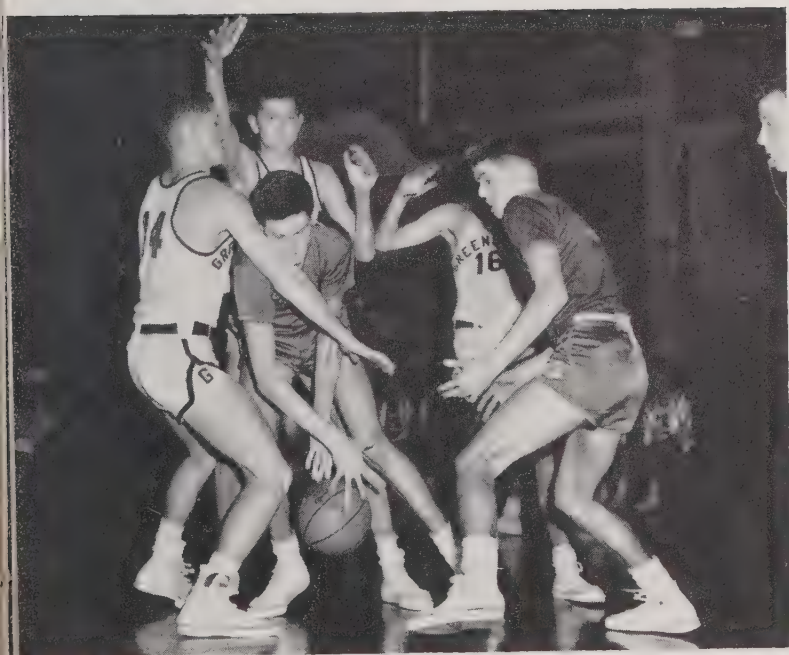

After a moderately successful magazine campaign, we began work on a senior play to raise the rest of the money needed for our much-talked-about trip to Washington. The play "Lost Horizon," from the novel by James Hilton, was decided upon with director Nan Wilkinson casting Elliott Grover and Julia Meadows in the lead roles, supported by Otis Carroll, Mike Supple, Nelda Clements, Sarah Bradford, Ira Hardy, James Graves, Mary Helen Cross, Megan Goodwin, Kenneth Oakley, Fred Powledge, Patsy George, and Nancy Nordstrom. The play proved a success both as an excellent production and as a means of completing the financial needs for the Washington trip.

The cast of "You Can't Take It With You"

Ballet or Basketball?

At 9:05 on March 10, a certain Seaboard Railway car carried a group of our class on a never-to-be-forgotten trip to New York. The usual sights and experiences were retold when the tired group returned five days later. Townsend Holt, who had recently been chosen as "the" outstanding high school student in North Carolina, was among these.

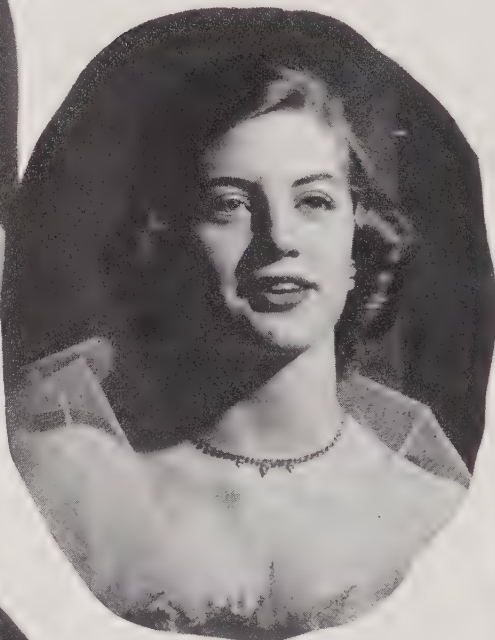

Broughton furnished the mayor for the annual Student Government Day event. Other of our classmates took part in this all day affair. When the Student Leaders' Banquet was held the last day of March, we realized that our school activities would soon be brought to a close.

Appearances are deceiving: Whenever you see a big house without any plumbing there is usually something behind it.

As the cow said to the milkmaid, "Go ahead, see if I give a dram."

It's your future . . .

It can be a bright future. But only if you share in its building. For though youth has a right to opportunity, it must also accept the obligations that opportunity demands. You will find this to be true—the great opportunities are those which you help create yourself. When you help build a finer town, a finer community, a Finer Carolina, you become a shareholder in your own future. You can do this by pledging your services to your local Finer Carolina Committee.
